Frequently Asked Questions (updated 04/16/20)

What days will meals be distributed?

- Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday only for the Week of April 20th.
- There will not be any distributions Thursday, or Friday.
- The child will still receive the same amount of meals.

Do I need to register?

- Yes. Register at www.usd234.org.
- Just a few questions to help us serve you.

I'm having trouble registering using the form

- Call 620-223-0800 and we will help.

Do I need to bring my kids with me?

- Yes. According to federal and state regulations we must be able to visually see the child. At this point, we are still requiring this.

Do I have to go to the school my child attends?

- No. These are distribution points and are not in connection to the school your child attends.

I have kids attending at each of the schools, do I need to go to each school?

- No. Pick up where it is most convenient for you.

Can I pick up a meal to take home to my child?

- No. We must be able to visibly see the child.

What ages can be served?

- We can serve ages 1-18.

Does a parent have to be present?

- No. Kids can pick up the meals if you, as a parent, feel comfortable letting them.

How do I pick up my children's meals using the food service route (bus route)?

- The meals will be distributed from the back of the bus by USD 234 staff.
- Please form a line practicing social distancing starting at the back of the bus.

Are foods going to be delivered to my door?

- No. The safety of our kids and our staff is the highest priority. We do not have the resources nor the capability to deliver to each household.

How do I pick up at the school pick-up points?

- We will be running these like a drive-thru line.
- Please pull into the line.
- Please remain in the car for all our safety.
- If you walk up to the school, there will be a table for that purpose. We highly recommend that you drive through the pick-up line.

Do I have to qualify for free or reduced meals with the school?

- No. Any child 1-18 can participate.
