

Theileria in Cattle: Understanding Risk, Spread, and Management

Wednesday, February 25th
5:30 PM

Fort Scott Livestock Market
2131 Maple Rd
Fort Scott, KS 66701

Fort Scott
Livestock

Light snacks and refreshments will be provided.

Call 620-365-2242
with questions or to reserve your spot.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Extension
Southwind District

Dr. Cassandra Olds, K-State veterinary entomologist and Southwind agent Hunter Nickell will provide

- an overview of Theileria in cattle
- transmission pathways
- entomology considerations
- arthropod control strategies, and
- management decisions that reduce disease risk while minimizing insecticide resistance.

Image source: USDA APHIS